Regarding: Tec Centro Support

To Whom It May Concern:

Four Seasons Produce is grateful for the partnership and support from Tec Centro. During these challenging staffing times, Tec Cento has been a key community partner and has referred a number of qualified candidates to fill our open positions. Tec Centro's mission to provide education and enhance employment skills is serving a vital role in empowering our community. They are accomplishing this mission by offering educational opportunities and support services to future and current associates including job training and ESL courses. We look forward to our continued partnership.
